1 Information we collect

The Kerry SLT Clinic holds personal data as part of conducting a professional service. The data follows under the following headings: healthcare records, educational records, clinical records, general administrative records, and financial records.

1.1 Healthcare records

A healthcare record refers to all information collected, processed and held both in manual and electronic formats pertaining to the service user and their care. Speech and language problems can be complex, and a wide range of information may be collected in order to best meet the needs of the client, and to maintain a high-quality service which meets best practice requirements. In order to provide a high-quality service, a range of information may be collected.

Examples of data collected and held on all current and active clients include the following:

- Contact details: Name, address, phone numbers, e-mail address,
- Personal details: date of birth,

- Other contacts: name and contact details of GP and any other relevant healthcare professionals involved.

For child services:

- Parent/guardian details
- Description of family
- Educational placements.
- Pre- and post-natal history: This can include information relating to mother's pregnancy, and child's birth.
- Developmental data: developmental milestones, feeding history, audiology history.
- Medical details: such as any relevant illnesses, medications, and relevant family history. Reports from other relevant allied health professionals such as: Audiology, Psychology, CAMHS (Child & Adolescent Mental Health Services), Occupational therapy, Physiotherapy, Ophthalmology.

For adult services:

- Employment/vocational history
- Mental health

1.2 Educational records

Relevant Individual Educational Plans (IEPs), progress notes from educational staff and school reports may be held.

1.3 Clinical records

Specific data in relation to communication skills may be collected and held, such as assessment forms, reports, case notes, e-mails, text messages and transcripts of phone. Audio and video files may also be collected and stored.

1.4 General administrative records

The Kerry Speech and Language Therapy Clinic may hold information regarding attendance reports and accident report forms.

1.5 Financial records

A financial record pertains to all financial information concerning the practice, e.g., invoices, receipts, information for Revenue. The Kerry Speech and Language Therapy Clinic may hold data in relation to: on-line purchasing history, card payments, bank details, receipts and invoices. Information will include name of bill payer, client name, address and record of invoices and payments made.

1.6 Employee records

As an employer, The Kerry SLT Clinic holds employee records for each individual employee. These include demographic details, CV, PPS No., dates of employment, garda and overseas criminal bureau vetting records, copies of identification, copies of qualification and training certificates, revenue and employee registration documentation, and management and performance notes.

2 Where we get our information

Personal data will be provided by the client, or in the case of a child (under 16 years), their parent(s)/guardian(s). This information will be collected as part of a case history form prior to, or on the date of first contact.

Information may also be provided directly from relevant third parties such as schools, medical professionals and allied health professionals, with prior consent from the parent(s)/guardian(s).

3 How we use the information that we collect

We use the information we collect to provide assessment and therapy as per the relevant professional guidelines, as well as to maintain the general running of the business, such as running our electronic booking system, keeping our accounts and updating you of any changes in policies or fees.

Information may also be used for research purposes, with the written consent of the client or parent/guardian.

3.1 Data retention periods

The retention periods are the suggested time periods for which the records should be held based on the organisation's needs, legal and/or fiscal precedence or historical purposes. Following the retention deadline, all data will be destroyed under confidential means.

3.2 Client Records

3.2.1 Clinical Records

The Kerry SLT Clinic keeps both physical and electronic records of clinical data in order to provide a service.

- The preferred format for clinical data is paper.
- Clinical data is deleted/confidentially destroyed after 2 years from last invoiced session.
- Clinical data used for research and training purposes, may be kept for longer than 2 years (specific consent is sought for research and training purposes and this may be withdrawn by the client at any time).
- Video records/ voice recordings relating to client care/videoconferencing records may be recorded with consent, analysed and then destroyed. If written consent is provided to use recordings for training purposes, the client will have the option to withdraw consent at any time.

3.2.2 Financial Records

The Kerry SLT Clinic keeps electronic and paper records of financial data from those who use our services.

Section 886 of the Direct Tax Acts states that the Revenue Commissioners require records to be retained for a minimum period of six years after the completion of the transactions, acts or operations to which they relate. These requirements apply to manual and electronic records equally.

- Financial Data is kept for 6 years to adhere to Revenue guidelines.
- Financial Data (including non-payment of bills) can be given to Revenue at Revenue's request.

3.2.3 Contact Data

Contact Data is kept for 6 years to allow processing of Financial Data if required. (This may be retained for longer for safety, legal request, or child protection reasons.)

3.3 Exceptions

If under investigation or if litigation is likely, files must be held in original form indefinitely, otherwise files are held for the minimum periods set out above.

4 Information we share

We do not share personal information with companies, organisations and individuals outside Kerry SLT Clinic unless one of the following circumstances apply:

4.1 With your consent:

7.4 By disposing of/destroying the data once the individual has ceased receiving treatment

Typically within 2 years of the completion of this treatment apart from the special categories of personal data as set out at 1.1 above. Where data is required to be held by us for longer than the period of 2 years, we will put in place appropriate technical and organisational measures to ensure a level of security appropriate to the risk. These may include measures such as the encryption of electronic devices, pseudonymisation of personal data, and/or safe and secure storage facilities for paper/electronic records.

7.5 By retaining the data for only as long as is required

which in this case is two years except for circumstances in which retention of data is required in circumstances set out at part 1.1 above or in certain specific circumstances as set out at Article 23(1) of the GDPR.

7.6 By destroying the data securely and confidentially after the period of retention has elapsed.

This could include the use of confidential shredding facilities or, if requested by the individual, the return of personal records to the individual.

7.7 By ensuring that any personal data collected and retained is both accurate and up-to-date.

8 Protecting your Rights to Data

8.1 Adult clients

Adults have the right to request data held on them as per article 15 of GDPR. A request must be made in writing. Further information regarding accessing your personal data are available in the document 'Rights of Individuals under the General Data Protection Regulation', downloadable from: www.gdprandyou.ie

8.2 Children

For children under the age of 16, data access requests are made by their guardians. When a child turns 16, then they may make a request for their personal data. However, this is subject to adherence with the Children First Act.
